

Zechariah 1:1-21 Questions

- 1) Zech. 1:1 tells us that Zechariah was the “son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo”. Compare this to what is said in Ezra 5:1. How do we explain this discrepancy?
- 2) With whom was the Lord angry? (Zech. 1:2)
- 3) What is Zechariah commanded to say to the people? (Zech. 1:3)
- 4) Compare Zech. 1:3 with Hag. 2:4-5. Zechariah tells the children of Israel to return to the Lord shortly after Haggai had told them the Lord was with them. How do we explain these seemingly opposing statements?
- 5) Who is set forth as a negative example in this passage? What did they not do? (Zech. 1:4)
- 6) What question does the Lord ask concerning His words and His statutes? What do you think this means? (Zech. 1:6)
- 7) How did the people respond to Zechariah's call to return to the Lord? (Zech. 1:6)
- 8) In Zechariah's first vision, who is standing among the myrtle trees? (Zech. 1:8)
- 9) What do “those whom the Lord has sent to patrol the earth” have to report? (Zech. 1:11)
- 10) Who is the “man” of Zech. 1:8 possibly identified as being? (Zech. 1:11)
- 11) What question does he ask of the Lord? (Zech. 1:12)
- 12) For what is the Lord jealous? With whom is He angry, and why is He angry with them? (Zech. 1:14-15)

Zechariah 1:1-21 Questions

13) With what attitude will the Lord return to Jerusalem? (Zech. 1:16)

14) What will the Lord again do? (Zech. 1:17)

15) What had the four horns of Zechariah's second vision done? (Zech. 1:19)

16) What were the four craftsmen coming to do? (Zech. 1:21)